

While Still In Jail

#1

* Charity Done In Secret

Michael a Kin Folk of Jesus, tells Jesus, "Ella let Dale back in." A man she had divorce papers on. Jesus Replied, "Let me tell you, I moved out of the house Frank left us and said, Uncle Billy, Ella need that house more than me." "I had bigger fish to fry, so I went back to New York City." "I heard from Uncle Billy, Ella did not pay the taxes for 5 years and is going to lose that house." "I said, I have $2,700 and will send her $2,500 and if she do not pay those taxes, she will just be homeless." (They called Prince Hall 'Billy'.)

"So she came here to see me, and refused to give me my ATM card to hand out." So I felt I needed to remind her. "Because she claimed I paid your bills for 1 year while you was gone." (Jesus went on a Journey to survey communities.) "I had $2,700 to my name and gave her $2,500 and until then she did not even know it was me who save her and her family from homelessness." "But she has to remind me about what?" "She used my buildings for storage and allowed that some nigger who let the taxes go unpaid, live in my house for free?" "Had she charged just $200 per month my utilities would have been paid." "So Ella ~~has~~ says, you want me to pay you back your $2,500?" "I said no, just stop telling me what you did for me, try practicing charity in secret, otherwise it seems like extortion, because you want something in return."

* Who is a nigger?

Another man starting putting his hands to transfer to another church, when he heard some younger me complain about unfair selections of Trustees.